Stricken with Blindness While Singing George Neely, a Kensington boatman has been suddenly and mysteriously stricken blind. His eyesight left him Monday without warning and without any painful confinement. He had begun his usual work on a canal boat on the Raritan canal, from New Branswick He had walked a step or two on the boat, singing merrily to himself, when suddenly everything grew black. He could not see objects half a foot distant. His vision had completely failed him.

Groping about the deck he tried to communicate his affliction to the other deck hands. When his true condition was discovered he was tenderly taken new surroundings, new social fads care of, and when the canal boatreached this city he was conveyed to his home in Kensington, and there attended to. Still he grew no better. It was then decided that the best place for him was a

His nephew accompanied him to Philadelphia hospital. On arriving there he was examined and placed in the nervous ward, where he is resting quietly, with his vision only slightly improved.-Philadelphia Record.

before they were married. The couple first went to Hartington to be united, but the bride was too young 4c. up, with insertions to match; to meet the requirements of the Nebraska law. On Sunday they started for Yankton, being assured that they could meet with no obstacles. Arrived at the Missouri river they found the bridge had been washed out only an hour before. It was night before they ing to match. finally found a boatman to take them to the South Dakota bank, where they found themselves two miles above the town in a willow thicket.

Late at night they reached town and were obliged to wait till morning before calling on a justice of the peace. On Monday they learned to their disgust that the laws of South Dakota, although more liberal than those of Nebraska, de Soi, Crepe de Chine and Drapdid not sanction the marriage of one so young as the would be bride. They were told to go to Iowa, which they did, If some poor, unfortunate fellow, gets and there met with better success.
